

XProtect® Essential is open platform IP video management software (VMS) designed for small, single-server businesses and can manage up to 26 surveillance cameras. XProtect Essential provides a wide offering of video surveillance features to effectively and intuitively view and export your video evidence. XProtect Essential is cost effective with a flexible licensing model that allows you to easily add cameras and expand your system.